AGUSTIN GARCIA MORAN, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

COMPLAINT

COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29
U.S.C. § 216(b)

7 MARKET PLACE, INC. (D/B/A 7 MARKET PLACE INC), HENRY YOUNSUB BYUN , and HEIDI KIM ,

ECF Case

Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiff Agustin Garcia Moran (“Plaintiff Garcia” or “Mr. Garcia”), individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon his knowledge and belief, and as against 7 Market Place, Inc. (d/b/a 7 Market place Inc), (“Defendant Corporation”), Henry Younsub Byun and Heidi Kim, (“Individual Defendants”), (collectively, “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Garcia is a current employee of Defendants 7 Market Place, Inc. (d/b/a 7 Market place Inc.), Henry Younsub Byun, and Heidi Kim.
2. Defendants own, operate, or control a deli, located at 707 2nd Ave, New York, NY 10016 under the name “7 Market place Inc.”.
3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendants Henry Younsub Byun and Heidi Kim, serve or served as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operate or operated the deli as a joint or unified enterprise.
4. Plaintiff Garcia has been an employee of Defendants.

5. Plaintiff Garcia has been employed as a delivery worker and a salad preparer at the deli located at 707 2nd Ave, New York, NY 10016.

6. Plaintiff Garcia has ostensibly been employed as a delivery worker. However, he has been required to spend a considerable part of his work day performing non-tipped duties, including but not limited to taking out the trash, mopping, sweeping, dishwashing, stocking beverages, cleaning refrigerators, changing oils, cleaning machines, cleaning the basement, preparing salads, preparing sandwiches, stocking products, plumbing, cleaning bathrooms, arranging vegetables, cutting vegetables hereafter the (“non-tipped duties”).

7. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff Garcia has worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage, overtime, and spread of hours compensation for the hours that he has worked.

8. Rather, Defendants have failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked, failed to pay Plaintiff Garcia appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

9. Further, Defendants have failed to pay Plaintiff Garcia the required “spread of hours” pay for any day in which he has had to work over 10 hours a day.

10. Defendants have employed and accounted for Plaintiff Garcia as a delivery worker in their payroll, but in actuality his duties have required a significant amount of time spent performing the non-tipped duties alleged above.

11. Regardless, at all relevant times, Defendants have paid Plaintiff Garcia at a rate that is lower than the required tip-credit rate.

12. However, under both the FLSA and NYLL, Defendants are not entitled to take a tip credit because Plaintiff Garcia’s non-tipped duties have exceeded 20% of each workday, or 2 hours per day, whichever is less in each day. 12 N.Y. C.R.R. §146.

13. Upon information and belief, Defendants have employed the policy and practice of disguising Plaintiff Garcia’s actual duties in payroll records by designating him as a delivery worker instead of a non-tipped employee. This has allowed Defendants to avoid paying Plaintiff Garcia at the minimum wage rate and has enabled them to pay him at a rate below the lower tip-credit rate (which they still have failed to do).

14. Defendants' conduct has extended beyond Plaintiff Garcia to all other similarly situated employees.

15. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants have maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Garcia and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

16. Plaintiff Garcia now brings this action on behalf of himself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), and the "spread of hours" and overtime wage orders of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 146-1.6 (herein the "Spread of Hours Wage Order"), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees and costs.

17. Plaintiff Garcia seeks certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

18. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff Garcia's state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

19. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a deli located in this district. Further, Plaintiff Garcia has been employed by Defendants in this district.

32. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiff Garcia and/or similarly situated individuals.

33. Upon information and belief, Individual Defendants Henry Younsub Byun and Heidi Kim operate Defendant Corporation as either an alter ego of themselves and/or fail to operate Defendant Corporation as an entity legally separate and apart from themselves, by among other things:

- a) failing to adhere to the corporate formalities necessary to operate Defendant Corporation as a Corporation,

- f) intermingling assets and debts of their own with Defendant Corporation,
- g) diminishing and/or transferring assets of Defendant Corporation to avoid full liability as necessary to protect their own interests, and
- h) Other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

34. At all relevant times, Defendants have been Plaintiff Garcia's employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants have had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff Garcia, have controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and have determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff Garcia's services.

35. In each year from 2012 to 2018, Defendants have, both separately and jointly, had a gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

36. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise have been directly engaged in interstate commerce. As an example, numerous items that are used in the deli on a daily basis are goods produced outside of the State of New York.

Individual Plaintiff

37. Plaintiff Garcia is a current employee of Defendants who has been employed as a delivery worker and a salad preparer. However, he had spent over 20% of each shift performing the non-tipped duties described above. Plaintiff Garcia seeks to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Agustin Garcia Moran

38. Plaintiff Garcia has been employed by Defendants from approximately 2009 until the present date.

39. Defendants have employed Plaintiff Garcia as a salad preparer and ostensibly as a delivery worker.

40. However, Plaintiff Garcia has also been required to spend a significant portion of his work day performing the non-tipped duties described above.

41. Although Plaintiff Garcia has ostensibly been employed as a delivery worker he has spent over 20% of each day performing non-tipped work throughout his employment with Defendants.

42. Plaintiff Garcia has regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as food and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

43. Plaintiff Garcia's work duties have required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

44. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Garcia has regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

45. From approximately March 2012 until on or about February 2018, Plaintiff Garcia worked as a delivery worker and a salad preparer from approximately 7:00 a.m. until on or about 7:00 p.m., three days a week and from approximately 7:00 a.m. until on or about 8:00 p.m., three days a week (typically 75 hours per week).

46. From approximately February 2018 until the present date, Plaintiff Garcia has worked as a delivery worker and a salad preparer from approximately 7:00 a.m. until on or about 5:00 p.m., 6 days a week (typically 60 hours per week).

47. Throughout his employment, Defendants have paid Plaintiff Garcia his wages in cash.

48. From approximately March 2012 until on or about August 2017, Defendants paid Plaintiff Garcia a fixed salary of $300 per week.

49. From approximately August 2017 until on or about December 2017, Defendants paid Plaintiff Garcia a fixed salary of $400 per week.

50. From approximately January 2018 until the present date, Defendants have paid Plaintiff Garcia a fixed salary of $450 per week.

51. Plaintiff Garcia's pay has never varied even when he has been required to stay later or work a longer day than his usual schedule.

52. For example, Defendants have required Plaintiff Garcia to work an additional 1 hour to 2 hours past his scheduled departure time two or three days a week, and have not paid him for the additional time he has worked.

In addition, Defendants illegally have deducted $60 from Plaintiff Garcia's weekly paycheck for meals.

53. Plaintiff Garcia has never been notified by Defendants that his tips are being included as an offset for wages.

54. Defendants have not accounted for these tips in any daily or weekly accounting of Plaintiff Garcia's wages.

55. Plaintiff Garcia has not been required to keep track of his time, nor to his knowledge, have the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflect his actual hours worked.

56. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, has ever been given to Plaintiff Garcia regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

57. Defendants have never provided Plaintiff Garcia an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

58. Defendants have never given any notice to Plaintiff Garcia, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Garcia's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

59. Defendants have required Plaintiff Garcia to purchase "tools of the trade" with his own funds—including two bicycles, lock and chains, pants and bicycle maintenance.

Defendants' General Employment Practices

60. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants have maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Garcia (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying him appropriate minimum wage, spread of hours pay, and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

61. Plaintiff Garcia has been a victim of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying him the wages he has been owed for the hours he has worked.

62. Defendants' pay practices have resulted in Plaintiff Garcia not receiving payment for all his hours worked, and resulting in Plaintiff Garcia's effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

63. Defendants have habitually required Plaintiff Garcia to work additional hours beyond his regular shifts but have not provided him with any additional compensation.

64. Defendants have required Plaintiff Garcia and all other delivery workers to perform general non-tipped tasks in addition to their primary duties as delivery workers.

65. Plaintiff Garcia and all similarly situated employees, have ostensibly been employed as tipped employees by Defendants, although their actual duties have included a significant amount of time spent performing non-tipped duties.

66. Plaintiff Garcia and all other tipped workers have been paid at a rate that is lower than the lower tip-credit rate by Defendants.

67. However, under state law, Defendants are not entitled to a tip credit because the tipped worker's and Plaintiff Garcia's non-tipped duties exceed 20% of each workday (or 2 hours a day, whichever is less) (12 N.Y.C.R.R. § 146).

68. New York State regulations provide that an employee cannot be classified as a tipped employee on any day in which he or she has been assigned to work in an occupation in which tips are not customarily received. (12 N.Y.C.R.R. §§137-3.3 and 137-3.4). Similarly, under federal regulation 29 C.F.R. §531.56(e), an employer may not take a tip credit for any employee time if that time is devoted to a non-tipped occupation.

Plaintiff Garcia's duties have not been incidental to his occupation as a tipped worker, but instead have constituted entirely unrelated general deli work with duties, including the non-tipped duties described above.

69. In violation of federal and state law as codified above, Defendants have classified Plaintiff Garcia and other tipped workers as tipped employees, and have paid them at a rate that is lower than the lower tip-credit rate when they should have classified them as non-tipped employees and paid them at the minimum wage rate.

70. Defendants have failed to inform Plaintiff Garcia who receive tips that Defendants intended to take a deduction against Plaintiff Garcia's earned wages for tip income, as required by the NYLL before any deduction may be taken.

71. Defendants have failed to inform Plaintiff Garcia who received tips, that his tips are being credited towards the payment of the minimum wage.

72. Defendants have failed to maintain a record of tips earned by Plaintiff Garcia who has worked as a delivery worker for the tips he received.

73. Defendants have willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

74. Plaintiff Garcia has been paid his wages in cash.

75. Defendants have failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

76. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants have been done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff Garcia (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff Garcia properly for his full hours worked.

77. Defendants have engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

78. Defendants' unlawful conduct is intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiff Garcia and other similarly situated former workers.

79. Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff Garcia and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

80. Defendants have failed to provide Plaintiff Garcia and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

Plaintiff Garcia brings his FLSA minimum wage, overtime compensation, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons (the "FLSA Class members"), i.e., persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them, on or after the date that is three years before the filing of the complaint in this case (the "FLSA Class Period").

82. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Garcia and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage, overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records required by the FLSA.
